

The Law Society

List rental opportunities from the Law Society

Target solicitors and law firms in England and Wales, utilising the largest list of practising solicitors available

Sourcing data that complies with the DPA and DMA can prove difficult, time consuming and expensive.

Due to the unique position of the Law Society, we have access to the data of over 55,000 solicitors and more than 10,000 law firms in England and Wales - providing you with the most up-to-date and comprehensive data. So you can be sure your direct mail campaign has maximum impact.

Our lists should be an integral part of your direct marketing campaign, ensuring you achieve the ultimate reach to the correct audience.

No other organisation offers such a high quality list of practising solicitors, resulting in our clients returning again and again.

Using our professional service, our lists can be tailored to suit your exact campaign requirements.

- The Law Society has a long standing reputation with clients for providing credible and unique lists.
- Accurate data is key to your campaign's success. Solicitors are legally obliged to inform us when they move jobs or change address, this ensures that our lists are up-to-date.
- Compliant with the Data Protection Act and committed members of the Direct Marketing Association, Law Society lists give you peace of mind, guaranteeing your campaign will reach the right people.

The Law Society

113 Chancery Lane, London WC2A 1PL

Many additional selections are available including:

- Age: using date of birth
- Date of admission: this is the date on which the solicitor was admitted to the Roll, at which point the solicitor can practise; this would indicate the number of years practised
- Job title: senior partner, director, owner, ordinary partner, member, associate, assistant, trainee
- Geographical Area: using postcodes
- Size of Law Firm: this is based on number of partners in the firm, not the number of employees

The cost effective way to drive response

At a cost of £235 plus VAT per '000 names (minimum charge £470 plus VAT), our lists offer you the advantage of reaching an unrivalled, up-to-date audience.
